Parking

- Short stop: Wessels gate (max 2 hrs, NOK 33/hr).
- Long-term: ByGarasjen (NOK 260/day)

You can drop off luggage outside the building for a few minutes – but keep an eye on the car.

Bonus Tip: The Museum Tram departs nearby on weekends and takes you into the city center – a nostalgic and fun ride.

Welcome to Møhlenpris

You're staying in one of Bergen's most beloved neighbourhoods – Møhlenpris – a green, historic area by the water, just a short walk from the city center. Artists, students, and families live here, and you'll find both calm and curiosity around every corner.

Food & Drinks

- Kafe Spesial – Bergen's coziest pizza, pasta & lamb burger.
- Apollon – Vinyl records + beer = love.
- Folk & Røvere – A social pub in Skostredet, Bergen's quirkiest alley. My second home.

Pharmacy

- Vitusapotek Krinkelkroken
- Apotek 1 Nygårdsgaten

Nygårdsparken

My own backyard. Great for a nice short walk or a good start for a run around Store Lungegårdsvann, or just lay on the grass and enjoy the sun (the few days it's not raining here).

What Not to Miss

- Mount Fløyen: Ride the funicular or hike (45–60 min walk). Great view!

- Mount Ulriken: Higher up, more panoramic – take the tramway or hike if you're feeling strong.
- Fjellveien Walk: A beautiful flat path with views over the city.
- Stoltzekleiven: A steep stone stairway with around 900 steps, a favourite challenge for hikers, runners, and locals looking for a serious workout.
- The Fjords: Want a day trip? Look up Norway in a Nutshell or check tours to Flåm and Hardangerfjord.

Local Tips

- Bryggen: Bergen's UNESCO-listed Hanseatic harbor area – perfect for a stroll.
- Northern Lights? Sometimes visible from Nordnesparken – bring warm clothes!
- Troldhaugen (Edvard Grieg's home)
- Fantoft Stave Church by Bybanen (Light Rail).
